...I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another or say to each other 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know Me...

Jeremiah 31:33-34

Palm Sunday, April 13, 2025

Welcome to all who have joined us for worship on this Palm Sunday as we praise our Redeemer God! If you do not have a church home, we invite you to join us regularly. Please join us for coffee, juice, and fellowship after our morning service in the fellowship hall. Two tables are set up near the fireplace in the fellowship hall for senior members who would like to sit during their fellowship time.

Worship Notes

Today our worship services will be led by Rev. Kurt Monroe.

We welcome our Children's Choir as they sing in this morning's Palm Sunday service.

A Children and Worship program is provided for children 3-5 years of age during the morning service. Children of visiting families are welcome! Our helpers will greet the children in the back of the sanctuary and lead them to our worship center. Parents are asked to pick up their children after the service in Room 8 upstairs.

Our offerings for April 13 are designated for our Ministry Fund, Christian Education Fund, and Siouxland Unity CRC, Sioux City.

Next Sunday, April 20, our Easter morning service will include the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

The banners in our church represent the liturgical season of Lent when the Church remembers the suffering and death of Jesus. We are reminded of our progress through Lent by lighting one fewer pulpit candle each week. The primary color this season is purple, and the symbol in the middle is the Crown of Thorns. "They clothed Jesus in a purple cloak, and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on him." Mark 15:17. Thank you to Jennifer Kuipers for designing our Lenten bulletin cover!
